9.30 – 9.40	Welcome A warm welcome from Steven to the second Association for Language Learning Primary Languages Conference – Online.	Steven Fawkes Steven has twice been President of ALL and now volunteers as a Trustee; he supports the ALL Primary Hubs and oversees the Primary Zone of the website as part of the Primary Steering Group https://www.all-languages.org.uk/primary-2/
9.40 – 9.45	Screen Break
9.45 – 10.20	An Ambitious Primary Languages Curriculum Primary languages have been around a long time now. Are we more ambitious for our learners now than we used to be? I'll be examining where we've come from in primary languages and where, ideally, we are heading.	Clare Seccombe Clare Seccombe has taught Spanish and French in Sunderland primary schools for twelve years, having previously spent 14 years as a secondary languages teacher and AST. She also speaks at conferences, trains teachers and trainee teachers, writes for publishers and makes award-winning resources. Clare also set up and maintains the Light Bulb Languages website.

10.20 - 10.30	Screen Break
10.30 – 11.05	Subject Coordination for Success Kate will outline some key best practices in primary MFL coordination based on her experience and subject specialism. These include implementing an effective scheme of work, tracking progress and supporting both specialist and non-specialist colleagues to deliver an engaging languages curriculum. Kate will share some top tips which will help you champion your subject within your school and wider community.	Kate Percival Kate is currently a Year 6 class teacher and MFL coordinator at Broomfields Junior School in Warrington. She also teaches and delivers training for the Primary Languages Network, supporting schools and teachers throughout the country as a Primary MFL consultant.
11.05 – 11.10	Screen Break
11.10 – 11.45	Bringing Order to Chaos Mid-term planning that pulls everything together This session will look at developing a mid-term plan which brings together a variety of learning activities, a full coverage of skills and some cross-curricular ideas, in order to embed knowledge and motivate learners.	Vicky Cooke Vicky is a specialist languages teacher who has several years of experience in both primary and secondary settings. She also works as a link tutor for university ITTE and made Primary French online lessons for Oak National during lockdown 2020/21.
11.45 – 12.05	Break-Out Rooms – Networking

12.05 – 12.40	Not another worksheet, Miss! Activities for ambitious primary language learners, whatever their age or ability This session will suggest a variety of activities that we can have in our teaching and learning language toolkit to implement our ambitious planning for language learners; some language specific but many adaptable to any language. Drawing on her own experience as well as the generosity and wisdom of others, Lisa will share as many ideas as she can squeeze in but also signpost resources of more as she goes along. Expect some fun as well as the odd worksheet. 😊	Lisa Stevens Lisa Stevens is a Primary languages educator who teaches at two contrasting Birmingham primary schools as well as the director of Lisibo Ltd. She is a passionate advocate for creative primary language learning integrated into the curriculum. She has consulted on various language, creativity and ICT projects for the British Council, CILT and the BBC, including The Lingo Show for Cbeebies, and often speaks at local and national conferences. Lisa is a member of ALL Council as well as one of the moderators of Languages in Primary Schools.
12.40 – 1.00 Virtual Publisher Exhibition LUNCH
1.00 – 1.20 Break-Out Rooms - Networking LUNCH
1.20 – 1.55	An ambitious primary languages curriculum for all Supporting, stretching, challenging to ensure progress for all learners We all want a classroom in which every pupil is enabled to reach their full potential. But what does that really look like? How can we remove barriers to learning for SEND pupils whilst also stretching those that need it and challenging our rapid graspers? From visual stimuli and multi-sensory approaches to scaffolding and grammar strategies, discover practical advice and tried-and-tested ideas for supporting all pupils to access the curriculum and make progress in the primary languages classroom.	Ellie Chettle Cully Ellie Chettle Cully is a qualified primary teacher with a degree in French and Hispanic Studies, currently working as the French specialist teacher and Languages and International Dimension Lead at Hazel Community Primary School in Leicester. Ellie regularly speaks and writes about the delivery of languages in primary schools and runs the ALL Leicester Primary Hub. She is passionate about raising the profile of languages through engaging language lessons, extra-curricular clubs, designated curriculum days and trips.

1.55 – 2.00	Screen Break
2.00 – 2.35	Making assessment in languages ambitious and achievable The session begins by looking at the key principles of assessment in languages. All good principles but the question remains HOW do we achieve these? The statements and activities which I have created to suit the context of my school will be examined along with the transition document that is now used across the city of Portsmouth. My aim is to share ideas for assessment that can be adapted or replicated in other settings.	Marie Allen Marie is the subject lead for MFL at Cottage Grove Primary School in Portsmouth. MFL was recognized as an area of excellence through the Challenge Partners programme and secured positive comments when chosen as a deep dive subject in the school’s 2019 inspection. She co-hosts the ALL Primary Hub in Portsmouth and is an SLE for MFL in the city. Her languages are French and German.
